

Peace One Day 2020

Live Global Digital Experience

Join the Peace One Day Live Global Digital Experience on the UN International Day of Peace on 21st September 2020.

This ground breaking virtual event will be broadcast live to every continent in the world, connecting the most incredible international speakers, actors and musicians for a full day of online digital experience and to raise awareness of Peace Day, and ultimately spread the message of peace and non-violence throughout the world.

There will be 7 live-streamed panel discussions throughout the day, which will cover a variety of topics. These panels will feature inspiring individuals who are experts in their fields, from the worlds of peace keeping, technology, education, mental health, virology, business and entertainment.

The Words of Peace will feature great actors reciting dramatic or historical speeches that have inspired change or action in the past. There will also be live streamed music performances and interviews from international artists from all corners of the globe.

The Peace One Day Live Global Digital Experience, produced by Jeremy Gilley and Jude Law, is designed to showcase activity globally, in the hope that 3 billion people will be exposed to the Peace Day message in just 24-hours. What's more, is that it's absolutely free to register for this incredible digital experience.

Register today for free, to unite with millions around the world for a day filled with hope, reflection and connection.
